

UserGate is a complete Internet Sharing software solution designed to connect Local Area Network users to the Internet using only one external IP address.

UserGate provides a centralized management for Internet Connections, carries out network Resource Caching, conducts exact traffic calculation, includes a built-in Billing System and also a Statistics Module.